

Litigation Insurances

Court action can be stressful but how will you feel if you lose and you failed to insure the costs awarded against you?

Taking a case to court can be a worrying and expensive business. Even if your case appears sound, can you take the risk of a court decision going against you?

With Vision Litigation insurances, you can go to court knowing that you have made sensible provision to cover all eventualities.

Vision Litigation insurances

- Remove the worry – should the worst happen, you are insured.
- Put yourself in a strong position – you won't be forced to abandon your case and can use your strong financial position to negotiate a favourable settlement.
- Gain confidence – It's good to know that an insurer has accepted the case and this fact will be known by the other side.

Available Options

- Own and Other sides Costs plus your disbursements
- Reserve higher limits and pay for them as you need them
- Return premium options available
- Instalment premium options available
- Most actions considered
- Access to financing solutions
- Established expertise in this sector

Ask your solicitor to contact Vision Underwriting Limited www.visionunderwriting.co.uk